If everyone in the UK sent one less email each day it would save 16,433 tonnes of carbon a year. Thus no need for 'thanks' and please consider if cc'ing me is necessary.

Hello

[REDACTED] Jen [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] Jen [REDACTED]

After last night's outburst I think we need to review our working with her in the formal role as the parent carer rep as from how she presented, she is not able to hear what we have been doing, even though she has been part of it.

Please let me know next steps and how I can support any working with Jen

thanks

These people don't use the services do don't know they do not work. There should be laws that guarantee 50% of council committees are made up of the community who use that service
